

Romantic Pandawa Cliff Estate

Perched atop a cliff, wed amid a backdrop of white sands and blue waters at the Pandawa Cliff Estate

Are you one of many couples dreaming of exchanging marital vows in romantic Bali? There are endless venues to choose from but maybe you are after something more unique, more private and exclusive. Considering a wedding in a secluded villa; not just any ordinary villa, but one that will give you the perfect wedding experience.

Pandawa Cliff Estate sits on the edge of Bali's Bukit Peninsula on the southernmost tip of Bali. It is nestled in a peaceful and private nook overlooking the shimmering blue ocean, away from the hustle and bustle of Bali. The villa is a few minutes from the popular Pandawa beach and 30 minutes from Bali's Ngurah Rai International Airport. Part of Elite Havens Group, the Pandawa Cliff Estate offers four villa types with 21 bedrooms: The Pala, Villa Rose, Villa Marie and Villa Markisa. Every single one of these villas is ingeniously designed by international designer Popo Danes, each having its own particular design and unique ambiance and interior.

The Pala

This is the signature villa from Pandawa Cliff Estate, the main attraction being the dramatic scenery of the Indian Ocean from atop a cliff. With its massive size, The Pala offers five generous ensuite guest rooms and one exclusive master suite, a dining room with two dining tables, a spa treatment room, children's play room and fitness room. As a wedding venue the Pala can cater up to 50 people with a spacious and lush garden completed by an infinity-edge swimming pool and a stone amphitheater. The verdant garden links through to neighboring Villas Rose and Markisa which provides even more seating and sleeping capacity.

Quick facts about The Pala:

Property Area:

3,000 sqm

Highlight:

Dramatic cliff-top over Indian ocean, infinity pool and stone amphitheater

Capacity:

Up to 50 guests

Villa Markisa

Villa Markisa is the newest of the Pandawa Estate and has an equally dramatic cliff-top setting and ocean views. Villa Markisa has five-bedroom villa also a splendid one-bedroom master suite with its own living room and pool on a separate level from the main garden— perfect for newlyweds. You can share the intimate ceremony with your families and friends while enjoying scrumptious food prepared by seasoned chefs.

Quick Facts:

Property Area:

3,000 sqm

Highlight:

Two level open-air area, cliff-edge bale (for dining area)

Capacity:

Up to 100 guests

Villa Rose

A bit different from The Pala, Villa Rose puts a contemporary twist on the traditional tropical design. Just next to the Pala, Villa Rose offers a choice of open-air living or air-conditioned cool; either way you will surely be treated to a front seat view of the vast blue Indian ocean. An expansive garden area is able to seat a large group of guests for an outdoor ceremony. There are four bedrooms in two floors; rooms are bright, high ceilinged and grand in their scale and are finished in marble, teak and glass.

Quick Facts:

Property Area:

3,000 sqm

Highlight:

Has Balinese style and layout with the views of the Indian ocean

Capacity:

Must be combined with either The Pala or Villa Markisa. The Pala & Villa Rose up to 200 guests. Villa Markisa & Villa Rose up to 300 guests

Villa Marie

Villa Marie has dominant Balinese touch in terms of style and layout. The rooms are set a little a back from the cliff top, but guests can still have a clear and direct view of the ocean. The ambience is homey but a bit larger than Villa Rose, with an outdoor dining area perfectly designed for outdoor parties.

Quick Facts:

Property Area:

4,051 sqm

Highlight:

Shallow pool for kids and great layout for families